1. Nature of the AthletesIQ Service

AthletesIQ is an educational and self-service platform designed to help student-athletes navigate the US college recruitment process.

AthletesIQ provides educational information, tools, resources and self-service functionality intended to help users understand the US college sports recruitment pathway and undertake their own research and outreach.

AthletesIQ is not a recruitment agency, does not act as an agent for users and does not contact college coaches or universities on behalf of users. Users are responsible for conducting their own outreach and making their own decisions regarding their recruitment journey.

The information and resources provided through AthletesIQ are intended for general educational and informational purposes only.

2. No Agency or Representation

AthletesIQ provides educational information, resources and self-service tools to assist users in navigating the US college recruitment process.

AthletesIQ does not act as an agent, representative, recruiter, intermediary or attorney on behalf of any user.

AthletesIQ does not represent users in negotiations or communications with colleges, universities, coaches, governing organisations or other third parties. Users are responsible for conducting their own communications, applications, negotiations and other interactions with colleges and other organisations.

Nothing provided through the AthletesIQ website or platform creates an agency, employment, partnership, joint venture, fiduciary or representative relationship between AthletesIQ and any user.

Use of the AthletesIQ platform does not authorise AthletesIQ to make commitments, representations, agreements or decisions on a user's behalf.

AthletesIQ does not have authority to bind any college, university, coach, governing organisation or other third party, and no information provided through the platform should be interpreted as creating such authority.

4. Educational Information Only

Information provided by AthletesIQ concerning college recruitment, NCAA, NAIA, NJCAA, academic eligibility, scholarships, visas, SEVIS, immigration procedures and related matters is provided for educational and informational purposes.

Such information is based on publicly available information and, where applicable, knowledge and experience acquired through the experience of AthletesIQ's directors.

5. NCAA, NAIA, NJCAA and Other Organisations

AthletesIQ is an independent educational platform.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, AthletesIQ is not affiliated with, endorsed by, sponsored by or officially connected with the NCAA, NAIA, NJCAA, any US college or university, or any US government agency.

References to the NCAA, NAIA, NJCAA, colleges, universities, conferences, coaches or other organisations are made for informational purposes.

Being included in an AthletesIQ database or referenced within AthletesIQ content does not mean that the relevant college, university, coach or organisation endorses, sponsors, recommends or has any formal relationship with AthletesIQ.

6. Eligibility Tools and Calculators

AthletesIQ may provide tools including GPA calculators, eligibility predictors and other assessment tools.

These tools are intended to provide estimates, guidance and educational information only.

Results generated by these tools do not constitute an official determination of academic eligibility, athletic eligibility, NCAA/NAIA/NJCAA eligibility, college admission eligibility or scholarship eligibility.

Actual eligibility may depend on information, rules, documentation and circumstances that are not included within the AthletesIQ tool.

Users should verify their eligibility directly with the relevant governing organisation and/or college or university before relying on any result.

AthletesIQ accepts no responsibility for decisions made solely on the basis of a calculator, predictor or other automated assessment.

AthletesIQ does not guarantee that information within the database is:

- complete;

Coaches may change colleges, positions, teams, contact details or employment status without AthletesIQ being immediately aware of the change.

Users should independently verify contact information and other relevant details before relying upon them or contacting a coach.

AthletesIQ is not responsible for any consequences arising from outdated, incorrect, incomplete or unavailable database information.

8. Third-Party Websites and Resources

AthletesIQ may contain links, references or embedded content from third-party websites and services, including college websites, YouTube and other external resources.

These third-party websites and services are outside AthletesIQ's control.

AthletesIQ does not guarantee the accuracy, reliability, availability, security or suitability of information, products or services provided by third parties.

The inclusion of a link or third-party resource does not constitute an endorsement, recommendation or approval by AthletesIQ.

Users access third-party websites and services at their own risk and should review the relevant third party's terms, privacy policy and other applicable policies.

9. AI-Generated Content
